I received a traffic citation when exiting I-88 Westbound @ Peace Rd. I went thru lane one, which is the I-pass lane and not the pay lane. There is a traffic control device (stop sign) located on the left side of the toll island. There is also a 15 MPH sign with an arrow pointing to the right. I was issued the citation for disregarding a stop sign while using the designated I-pass 15 mph lane, lane One. I need documentation as to the legalities of the stopping procedure in these lanes to bring to court. I took pictures of the signage and the toll plaza along with my I-pass records to court with me. The gentleman before me was issued the same ticket and that was not good enough for the judge to rule in his favor so I requesting information to indeed prove that a driver with an I-pass account and transponder is NOT required to stop when said transponder is in his/her vehicle and is proceeding thru a designated I-pass toll lane.

Thank You

Sincerely,

Brian Jeschke
